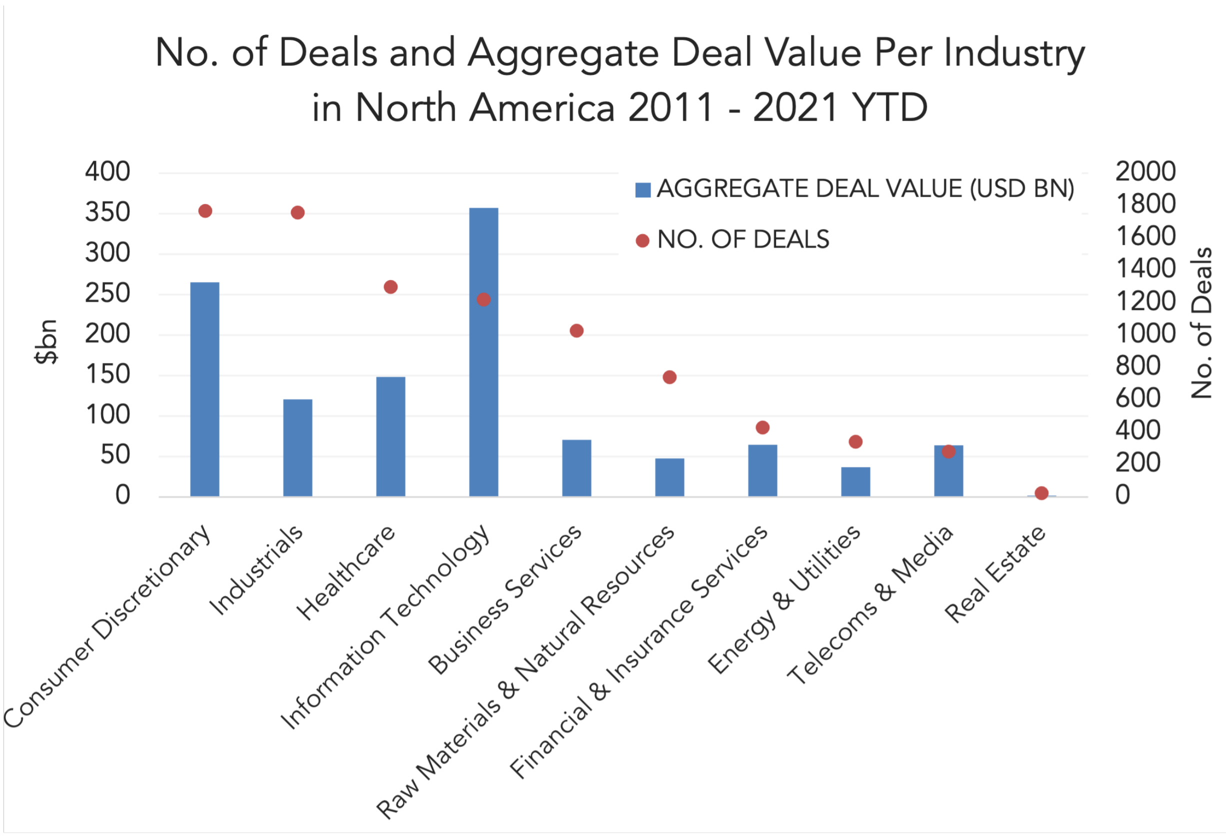
Private Debt Intelligence – 9/27/2021

THE LEAD | September 29, 2021

Consumer discretionary and information tech top PD

Chart



Download Data

[wpdm_package id='48725?]

As an industry, consumer discretionary has seen the largest number of private debt deals in North America since 2011, with 1768 deals and aggregate deal value of $265.7bn. This is only slightly more deals than industrials, which saw 1757 deals, but reached an aggregate deal value of just $120.6bn. The highest aggregate deal value across industries was seen in information technology, which saw aggregate deal value of $357.4bn over 1220 deals.

(Past performance is no guarantee of future results.)

Contact: Laura Messchendorp
laura.messchendorp@preqin.com